MICHAEL F. EASLEY
GOVERNOR

WATERMELON MONTH

2007

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, watermelons are enjoyed by millions of consumers every day, and the North Carolina Watermelon industry generated an estimated $7.3 million in farm income according to the 2005 Agricultural Statistics from the North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services; and

WHEREAS, there were over 105 million pounds of watermelons, grown on approximately 6,100 acres according to the 2005 Agricultural Statistics from the North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services; and

WHEREAS, the watermelon industry is of great importance to the economy of North Carolina with our state ranking eighth in the Nation in production of watermelons according to the 2005 Agricultural Statistics from the North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services; and

WHEREAS, the watermelon industry is yet another part of the total diversification of agriculture in North Carolina; and

WHEREAS, the industry also provides employment for many of our State's citizens and provides supplemental income for a number of rural families who farm on a part-time basis; and

WHEREAS, watermelons provide Tar Heels and other consumers a most versatile and nutritious commodity that is truly a symbol of goodness;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MICHAEL F. EASLEY, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim July 2007, as "WATERMELON MONTH" in North Carolina and urge our citizens to support the industry.
